

A Trailblazing, Survivor-Written Curriculum available in 2020 through a peer support group offered by Free Our Girls

Ending The Game (ETG) is a program for adults and juveniles who have experienced commercial sexual exploitation and sex trafficking. That includes but is not limited to: sex trading for drugs or basic needs, prostitution, stripping, pornography, sugar baby/daddy, gang trafficking, pimp trafficking, and more.

- Are you a survivor?
- Have you ever traded sex for money/drugs/basic needs?
- Have you ever had to turn over your money that you made to someone else?
- Are you tired of The Game?

If so, you are invited to a safe, confidential support group offered by Free Our Girls.

As a participant, you will learn to recognize the patterns of abuse and psychological tactics pimp-traffickers use as coercion into a world of exploitation. Alongside other survivors, you will learn to navigate the impact of false promises, emotional intensity, identity disturbance, violence, shame and other traumas you may have experienced while being trafficked. ETG was originally developed for female-identifying survivors, yet it is ideal for queer and non-binary identifying survivors as well. Two trained co-facilitators in ETG are survivors themselves; both have lived experience with commercial sexual exploitation and domestic sex trafficking.
